FROM THE ACTING THEATER MANAGER

Despite the weather forecast not being as dire as the meteorologists promised, the Rialto's Centennial Celebration (plus two!) was a rousing success with a packed house for FACE Vocal Band and headliner, Marc Cohn. Those who couldn't get into the full theater enjoyed the show from 4th Street, which featured a large videowall live streaming the show while attendees enjoyed beer, food trucks, and fire pits to keep the chill away. It was indeed a night to remember! A huge thank you to all who made this magnificent event possible despite the last-minute change of plans!

As we begin our next 100 years as a theater, it appears as though we are finally getting back to our pre-pandemic days. As such, we have many things to be grateful for, including a full slate of events in the theater where we can once again sit shoulder-to-shoulder while eating and drinking our favorite concessions and beverages in the theater. We are also finally doing much-needed renovations, including a permanent bar and an overhaul of our concessions area and box office, to make your Rialto experience the best it can be!

As always, the Rialto Theater will produce an entire season of programming with something for everyone, including outstanding rental partner productions, a full slate of Rialto Presents concerts, holiday films, and much more.

As we look forward to the future of the Rialto, we are so thankful for your support. So join us as we celebrate our Fall/Winter season with our new digs and many events to fill your calendars!

CLASSIC ALBUMS LIVE - LET IT BE

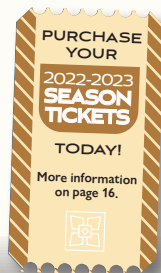

FRIDAY, JANUARY 20, 7:30PM

Classic Albums Live takes classic albums and performs them live, on stage using the world's greatest musicians.

Let It Be is the 12th and final studio album by the English rock band The Beatles. It was released on May 8, 1970, almost a month after the group's breakup, in tandem with the motion picture of the same name. Like most of the band's previous releases, the album topped record charts in many countries, including both the US and the UK. Contrastingly, the critical response was generally unfavourable, and Let It Be has come to be regarded as one of the most controversial rock albums in history with hits like "Across the Universe", "Let It Be", "Maggie Mae", "Get Back", "The Long and Winding Road" and more.

Join the band for a greatest hits set after the album!

TICKETS: $45; $60 VIP (Details on page 16)
(INCLUDES TICKETING FEE)

THE PETTY NICKS EXPERIENCE

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 7:30PM

There's a story that Stevie Nicks wanted to join Tom Petty and the Heartbreakers. They had some major hits together; yet, she never joined the band full time.

The Petty Nicks Experience is a "What if..." idea that combines the very best of Tom Petty and The Heartbreakers and Stevie's solo work along with some hits from Fleetwood Mac. This amazing experience is a real Rock N Roll high!

From "American Girl" to "Runnin' Down a Dream" to "Edge of 17" to "Landslide" to "Go Your Own Way" the show is full of quintessential American Rock N Roll!

ALTAN

FRIDAY, MARCH 10, 7:30PM

The spirit and sound of Altan comes from the deep and rich musical tradition of their native Co. Donegal.

On one of his many visits to the Donegal Gaeltacht of Gaoth Dobhair, Belfast born flute player Frankie Kennedy met fiddler and singer Mairéad Ní Mhaonaigh, sparking a deep musical connection, marriage in 1981, and a journey that took them all over the world. Their vision was to bring the unique repertoire of Donegal music to the world and that mission is still as strong as ever.
