History That Doesn't Suck

Friday, August 25, 7:30 pm
Tickets $30 | Premiere $45
(Includes Ticketing Fee)

Greg Jackson knows you think history is soooo boorrinnng. Armed with a guitar and a sense of humor that made his podcast of the same name rocket in popularity, this multimedia event will have you reconsidering your opinions about that dreaded school subject.

3 Redneck Tenors

Saturday, September 16, 7:30pm

Tickets $40 | Premiere $55
(Includes Ticketing Fee)

Described as “Blue Collar Comedy Tour goes to Carnegie Hall” the group embraces the philosophy of the mullets they often sport – business in the front, party in the back. They may have powerful, formally trained voices, but they will be the first to tell you opera, (as well as Gospel, Country, Broadway and Pop) was meant to be enthusiastically enjoyed, not quietly observed.

Bella Gaia

Thursday, September 28, 7:30 pm

Tickets $50 | Premiere $65
(Includes Ticketing Fee)

High-fidelity orbital views of Earth and cultural photography accompanied by live performances of music and dance from around the world convey the beauty and fragility of Earth and its inhabitants. It is impossible not to feel moved by an event Broadway World described as “BELLA GAIA = mind blown, in a glorious collision of science and art”.

DATE CHANGE

 Gregorian

Thursday, May 23, 7:30 pm

Tickets $50 & $60

VIP $100

(Includes Ticketing Fee)

VIP Package Includes:

Premium Seating,

A Signed Color Program,

Tour VIP laminate,

Pure Chants CD,

Pure Chants DVD

(not at retail),

Gregorian coffee mug.

Gregorian chant has always had an eerie, otherworldly quality so it seems appropriate to host these international artists on Halloween night. We are excited that Loveland will be the only Colorado venue on this tour timed with the release of their latest PBS concert special.

Letters Aloud

*"Thanks, But No Thanks -
The Best Rejection
Letters Ever"*

Friday, November 17, 7:30 pm

Tickets $30 | Premiere $45
(Includes Ticketing Fee)

The great and not so great have all met with rejection. Stephen King, Sidney Poitier, Andy Warhol, John Cleese, David Bowie, F. Scott Fitzgerald, have much in common with high school students applying to college. The show mixes dramatic readings of hilarious and heartfelt letters with images of the letters and a little cheeky musical accompaniment to celebrate the determination of folks just starting out.

MILF Life Crisis

Thursday, February 8, 7:30 pm

Tickets $25 | Premiere $40

(Includes Ticketing Fee)

A comedy about dating again

To Tinder, or Not to Tinder? After your perfect marriage falls apart, that is the question.

Comedian Anne Marie Scheffler is funny and highly relatable as she plays a series of friends, enemies, frenemies and the good, bad and ugly boyfriends one meets when you are no longer twenty, but have never been better.
